Java EE Developer

Reference #	c2791d48-23ae-48b4-90c6-c0148ee75363
Location	ODC - Makati, NCR Region, Philippines

Description

Working with a Java Designer or Java EE Technical Architect, the Java EE Developer develops and unit tests code based upon UML Designs. This position requires some proficiency in Object-Oriented Design, Design Patterns, and knowledge of programming best practices.

Qualifications

- 2+ years experience with Object-Oriented design and development
- 2+ yrs experience with Java EE, Java Security, JSP, JSF, Web Application Servers, and Web Services

Soft Skills

- Demonstrated interpersonal skills
- Able to communicate technical concepts clearly to peers and supervisors
- Capable of working with other team members to acquire or pass on technical and/or other skills
- Some proficiency in documentation and communication skills

Technical Skills

- Ability to translate Detailed Design into working code that conforms to the specification
- Ability to work in a complex environment
- Some knowledge of Object-Oriented Analysis/Design techniques
- Some knowledge of Design and Programming Patterns
- Some knowledge of SQL
- Some exposure to frameworks such as Java Server Faces (JSF), Hibernate, and Spring

Activities

- Working with architects and designers to translate detailed technical requirements into working code.
- Developing creative, innovative and practical solutions.
- Participating in design/architectural discussions.
- Creating Programming artifacts.

Working Conditions

- Typically works located at the Offshore Development Center (ODC)

12/6/2016